

The CDBC is Recruiting One Public Registration Committee Member

■ Term of office: April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2025

i

The College is operating an hybrid office where most, if not all, Committee meetings are conducted virtually. When there is travel, all expenses are reimbursed.

The CDBC's mandate is to protect the BC public by regulating dietitians to practice ethically, safety and competently. The College is committed to cultural safety and inclusive practices both as an organization and as an outcome for the public.

● ● ●

The Registration Committee is responsible to establish policies and guidelines to support fair and transparent registration practices at the College. It reviews and approves internationally educated candidates' applications, any upgrading required for reinstatement or the national licensing examination failure.

● ● ●

The Committee has a competency matrix that outlines the desired skills and attributes for Committee work. Committee members are not expected to possess all of the listed skills but rather build it as a collective.

If interested, please send a resume before March 23, 2023 to info@collegeofdietitiansbc.org

College of Dietitians of BC
www.collegeofdietitiansofbc.org

● ● ●

Committee members are compensated for their time in accordance with the per diem policy. Normally the Committee meets three times a year (January, May, October) for a half day and if needed, attend short teleconferences.

● ● ●

If you're interested in applying for the Committee position, please submit a current resume and a brief statement explaining why you are interested in participating on a College Committee and the strengths you would bring.

The CDBC encourages expression of interest from people who identify as First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples, members of marginalized communities including persons of colors, with disabilities, and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ+.

Applicants with lived experience and knowledge of cultural safety and humility would also be helpful to support Committees' work. The CDBC is committed to achieving a diverse representation of the public it serves and be inclusive towards all.